JUDGMENT

The grievance of the petitioner is that no proper investigation is being conducted into crime No.725/05 of Mangalapuram police station. Final report has already been filed. But the petitioner is aggrieved by the final report filed. The petitioner had subsequently filed Ext.P3 application before the Director General of Police, claiming further investigation under Section 173(8) Cr.P.C. The grievance of the petitioner in the petition is that no action is taken on such representation of hers, before the Director General of Police.

2. The learned Public Prosecutor, on instructions, submits that Ext.P3 application has already received the attention which it deserves and that the Superintendent of Police of Trivandum Rural had already directed that further investigation be conducted under Section 173(8) Cr.P.C. Accordingly, the Deputy Superintendent of Police, Attingal is taking necessary steps to conduct further investigation under Section 173(8) Cr.P.C after taking all the requisite legal steps.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the said submission can be accepted and in the light of the said submission, the petitioner has no surviving grievance to be redressed by this court.

4. This writ petition is accordingly dismissed accepting the submission of the learned Public Prosecutor that further investigation shall be conducted and necessary action shall be taken in the matter.
